The Seniors and Yearbook Staff Dedicate The 1968 IRONMAN to Evelyn Witbart

Evelyn spent many extra hours working as newspaper editor her junior year and would have been an assistant editor of the 1968 Ironman.

The students and staff of Macon High School and friends in the community were greatly saddened by the death of Evelyn Witbart, who was killed in a tragic automobile accident.

So this year we dedicate our yearbook to a senior whom we respected and admired—one who will be long remembered. Not very many students knew Evelyn very well because she was so quiet. But whenever there was a need, she was there to offer a capable, helping hand. She was dependable, conscientious, intelligent, efficient. Her name was always on the honor roll and Evelyn's high scholastic average had made her a candidate for the honor of being the Salutatorian for her class.

We feel regret for ourselves because we have lost her, a much missed classmate, but we are forever thankful for the privilege of knowing her.

Our Hard-Working SCHOOL BOARD

Relaxes in the Faculty Lounge
After the Annual Spring Pot-Luck

Mr. Mervil Jacobs, Jr., the president, with Mr. Scott Towson, and Mr. Roy Roush on the sofa, Mr. Donald Craft with Mr. Robert Glass, while Mr. Neal Lentz takes his ease in the arm chair.

Mr. Dwight Otta retired this year after serving for six years, and he will be missed.

Mr. Robert Snitker elected in spring will replace Mr. Otta on board next year.

Appreciation is due the board for its many accomplishments. In addition to checking on completion of new building, it expanded the area of Vocational School enrollment, supported activity programs by providing transportation for contests, etc., contributed to funds for faculty and student lounges, approved a new salary schedule for teachers, that included insurance benefits.

BUSY ALWAYS

in New Offices

BILL McCLARD, Principal

This was the year the Administration proudly moved into new quarters in the new building . . . with space to operate efficiently, confer with parents or discipline students privately. The new offices are attractive, but business-like, and equipped to help both Mr. McClard and Mr. Britton handle daily problems and duties.

ROGER BRITTON, Superintendent

VERA BRITTON, Secretary

Now located in reception areas of the new offices, the convenient counters, modern business machines, and large desks made it easier for the ever busy Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Renfro to deal with school routine . . . from checking attendance, duplicating announcements, to writing receipts for money turned in by the different student treasurers.

MARY RENFRO, Bookkeeper

VISUAL AIDS REGULARLY TO SUPPORT THE DAILY

TIM COOK teaches Basic Business, World Geography, Government and Economics. He is a sponsor of the Junior Class. "Tim" is well-remembered for his previous dedicated coaching of basketball and baseball.

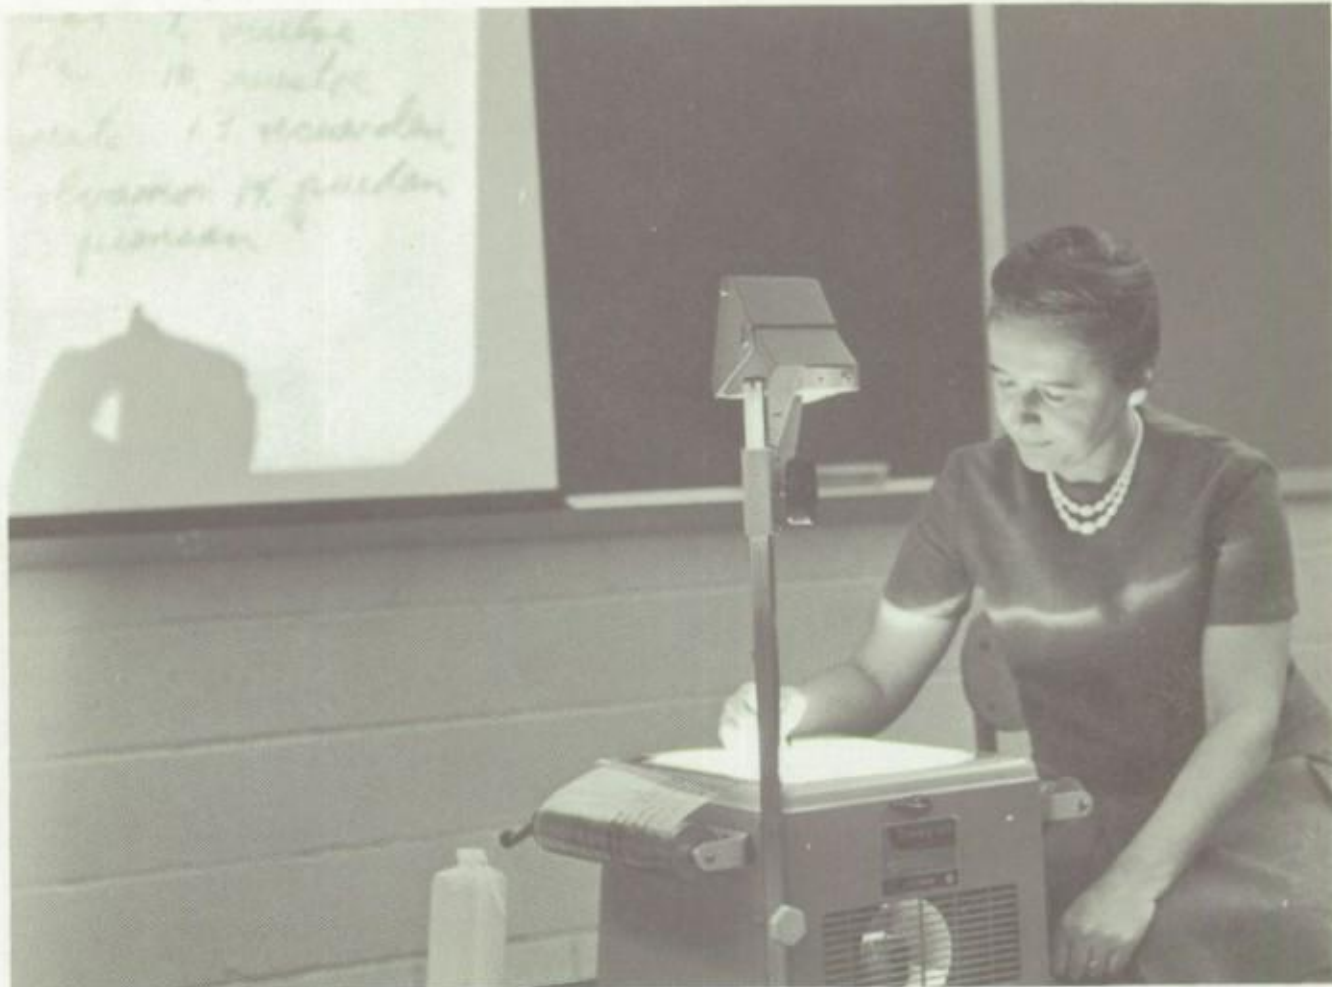

RALPH COATE keeps busy teaching B.S.C.S. Biology, Int. Algebra, Geometry, and Advanced Biology. Also he is sponsor of the Science Club and the Sophomore Class.

JESSIE HARRIS teaches English I & III and is also the sponsor of the Future Teachers of America. She has taken special interest in helping her students learn about the value of using the library.

EQUIPMENT USED AND AMPLIFY INSTRUCTION

JANE DEININGER is the capable teacher of our Spanish Department. Aside from this she sponsors the Senior Class, the National Honor Society, and the Spanish Honor Society.

AL BOYD teaches Trig, Physics, and Algebra I & II. He gives up part of his free time to sponsor the Sophomore Class.

JOY CAMPBELL has the job of directing our Junior and Senior High Choruses. She also stages annual Christmas program, produces the musical, and is a Junior Class sponsor.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING & PHYSICAL FITNESS

JACK STRINGER is in charge of the Industrial Arts Shop. He also drives a schoolbus and is Industrial Arts Club adviser.

MISS SUE FINDLEY, the new high school P.E. teacher, is sponsor of G.A.A. and Pep Club activities and also coaches the cheerleaders.

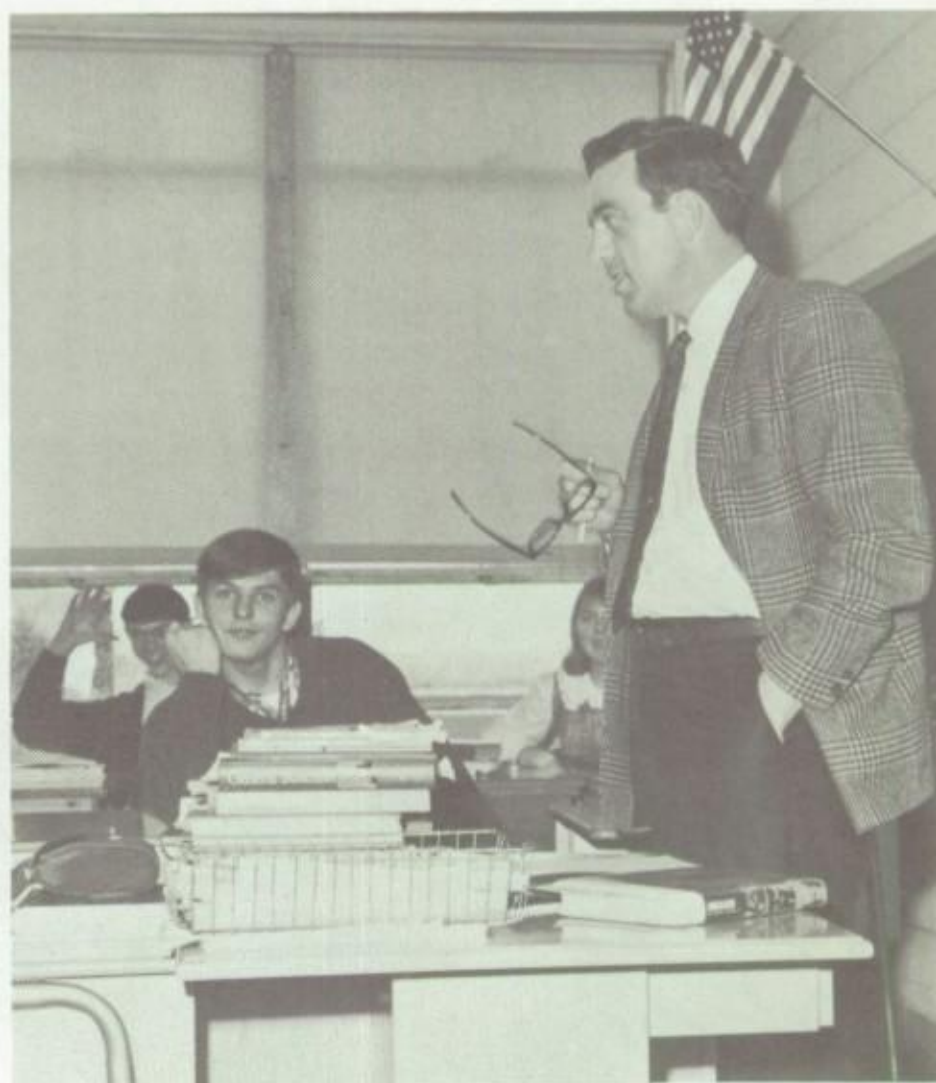

PHIL SARGENT is the new varsity basketball coach, J.V. football coach, and "M" Club adviser. He teaches World History and Boys' P.E.

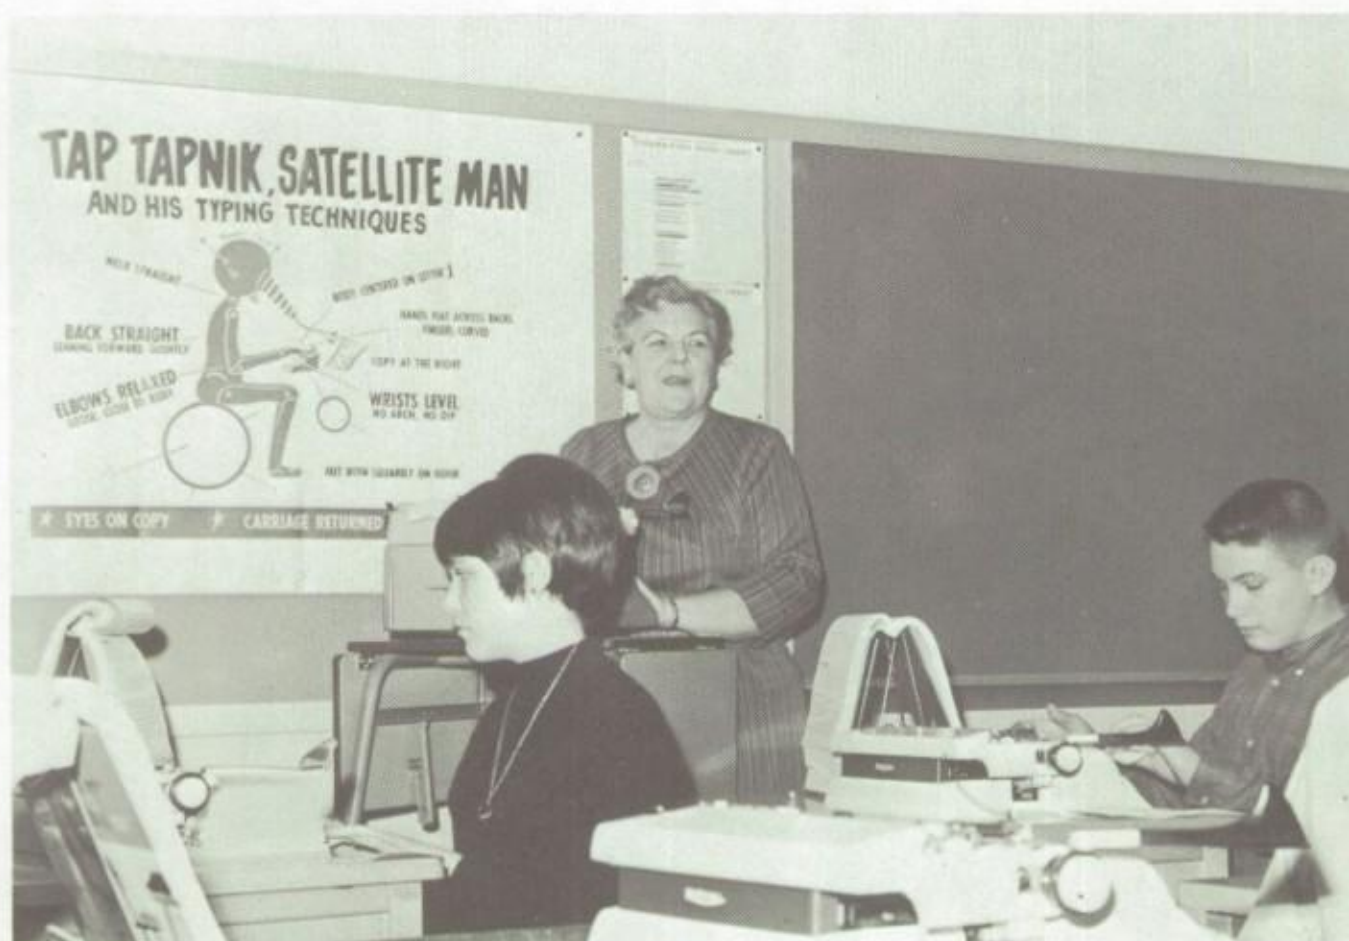

ARE VITAL PART OF MHS CURRICULUM

DALE SLOAN teaches Boys' P.E. I & II, General Science, and is also a Junior Class Sponsor. He coaches track and Junior Hi basketball.

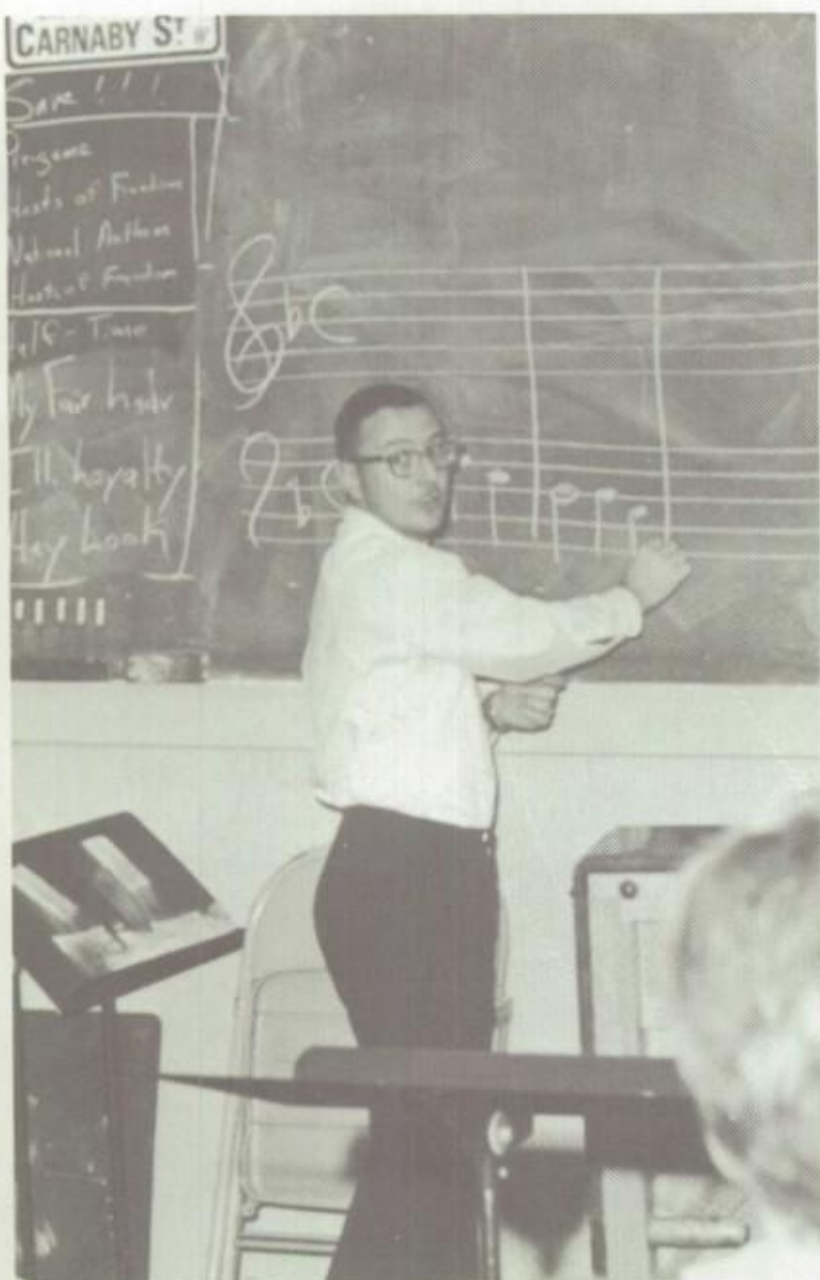

HUGH CRAIG teaches speech and is the sponsor of the new Speech Club. The rest of his time is spent teaching Junior High Classes.

JO HIGMAN is the sponsor of the newspaper, the Junior Class, and the Yearbook as well as teaching Shorthand, Typing, and Secretarial Science.

SPECIAL SERVICES & SUBJECTS ENRICH OUR SCHOOL

DAN THOMAS is the able director of the Concert, Stage, and Pep Bands. He sponsors the annual concerts and the Spring Serenade. This year he is teaching a new class, Music Theory. He is also a Senior Class sponsor.

EVELYN WALKER is the director of library services. With a master's degree in Library Science and experience in other high school libraries, she is exceptionally well-qualified to take charge of our new and elegant library. She is one of the Freshman Class sponsors.

JANET LUSTER, speech correctionist, divides her time between Macon and Blue Mound (but we think her heart belongs to Macon . . .) She works with students individually in all grades.

OWEN McCORKLE is the Guidance Counselor at Macon High. Among his many duties are the planning of senior visits to colleges, helping students in selection of subjects, giving a variety of tests. He has the added responsibility of being the adviser for Student Council.

LUELLA PENCE is our Home Economics teacher. She teaches Home Ec I, II, III, & IV. She is the sponsor of the Future Homemakers of America.

TEACHERS ALWAYS AT HAND TO HELP

GUY CARLTON teaches Social Problems and American History. He is the "M" Club sponsor. His school year starts early since as head football coach he is out on the field with the squad in late summer.

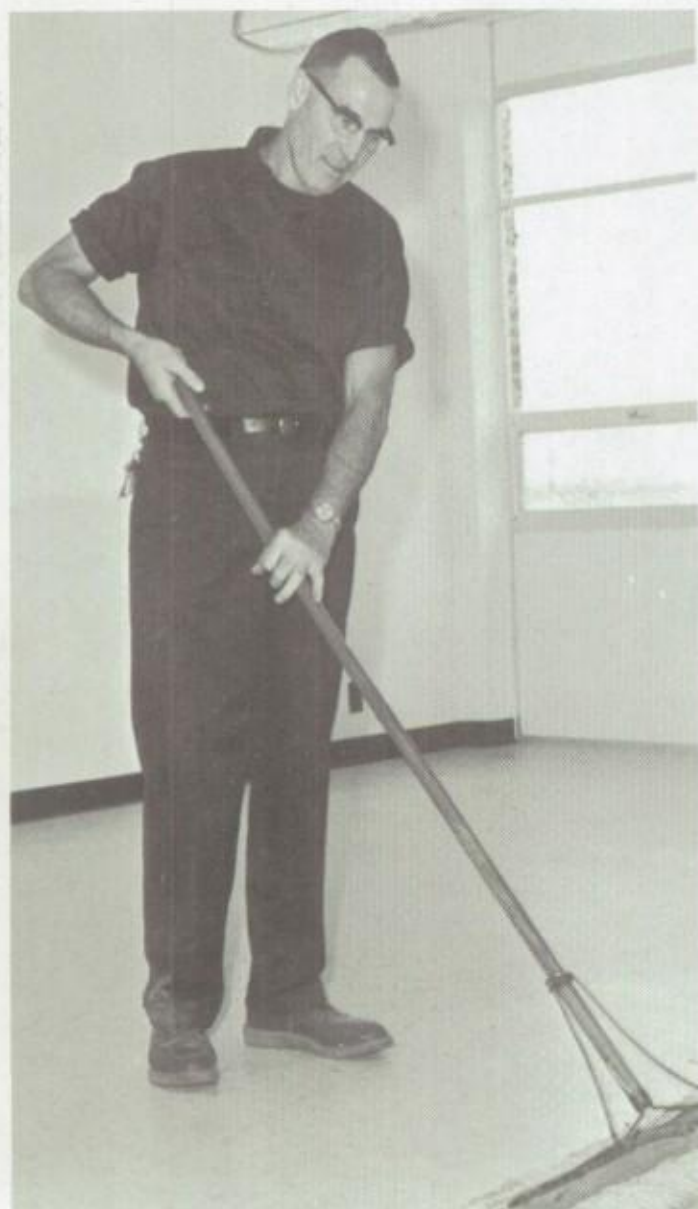

LYNN SWEET is the director of the Junior and Senior plays. He teaches Sophomore, Senior, and Honors English. Also he sponsors the Freshman Class.

Lead an Active Class of 67 JUNIORS

The juniors began an active year with hard work on their homecoming skit, "The Trip," and the Charlie Brown characters display in front of the school. They put very great effort into surpassing last year's sale of magazines and achieved a big success.

Next on the "busy list" came all the Prom preparations with those all important decisions on the band, theme, and program. The class had homecoming concessions, chili supper and a bakery sale to help make the money for post-prom party expenses.

STUDENT COUNCIL Took Over Student Lounge

The 1967-68 Council was newly organized; the first of its kind at M.H.S., being composed of duly-elected representatives from each class and two members from each organization. This year was a "test case"—and the Council expects to enjoy a larger voice in student affairs next year.

After long-awaited Student Lounge was established by seniors, Council took over and kept it going. List of rules was set up, ping-pong tables put in, Pepsi machine and phonograph added, comfortable furniture grouped, and candy available in Guidance Office.

In April Niantic took lead in starting a Meridian Council, that included Macon and six other schools. Nancy K. Tomlinson was elected chairman of this group. This new Council will exchange ideas between schools, and, perhaps, sponsor sportsmanship awards.

Any penalty for playing with a Tootsie Roll Pop in the mouth?

STUDENT COUNCIL in Charge of Concession Stands

Miss Mary "Money-Bags" had the difficult task of keeping track of all the expenditures for and income from the sale of candy, soft drinks, hot dogs, coffee, paper, etc. at concession stands and vending machines.

The Council was responsible for ordering all beverages, food, school supplies, etc. for concession stands and vending machines. For this service they received 10% of the profits; 90% went to the organization or class that was assigned the concession, on a schedule arranged by the Council. Much of the money earned by Council was used to pay off balance on Concession Stand. This year the Council sponsored the MAKIN' NEWS and members wrote articles, stories, and editorials.

F.T.A. Fortunate to Get Practice in Teaching

During the school year, some of the members of Future Teachers had the opportunity to learn about teaching from actual experience, when they were called to do substitute teaching at Macon Grade School.

The most interesting project for the group was the trip to Decatur to discover the extent of special education programs, and to learn about preparation for teaching the handicapped.

Jane Lotz supervises a gym class when substituting.

Football Coaching Staff Plans the Strategy . . . and Captains Direct the Team

The Varsity Eleven was plagued by injuries. A heavy schedule of five games at home, and four away meant many long hours of practice for the team. Since only five players will be lost by graduation, the coaches are confident that a stronger, more experienced team can be put into the field for 1968.

1967 FOOTBALL SEASON

The Junior Varsity Team had five games at home—Assumption, Lovington, Moweaqua, Argenta, and Niantic. The schedule also called for games away at Maroa, Warrensburg, Bethany, Illiopolis.

Scores were disappointing, but spirit was reassuring and J.V.'s fought with determination . . . so coaches have high hopes for a better win-record next year.

What Macon Hi team can score 92 points in one game and still lose? Can outscore Warrensburg-Latham's Denny Wicklein by one point? What Macon basketball team can lose 21 consecutive games in one season? The 1967-68 Varsity Basketball Team can!

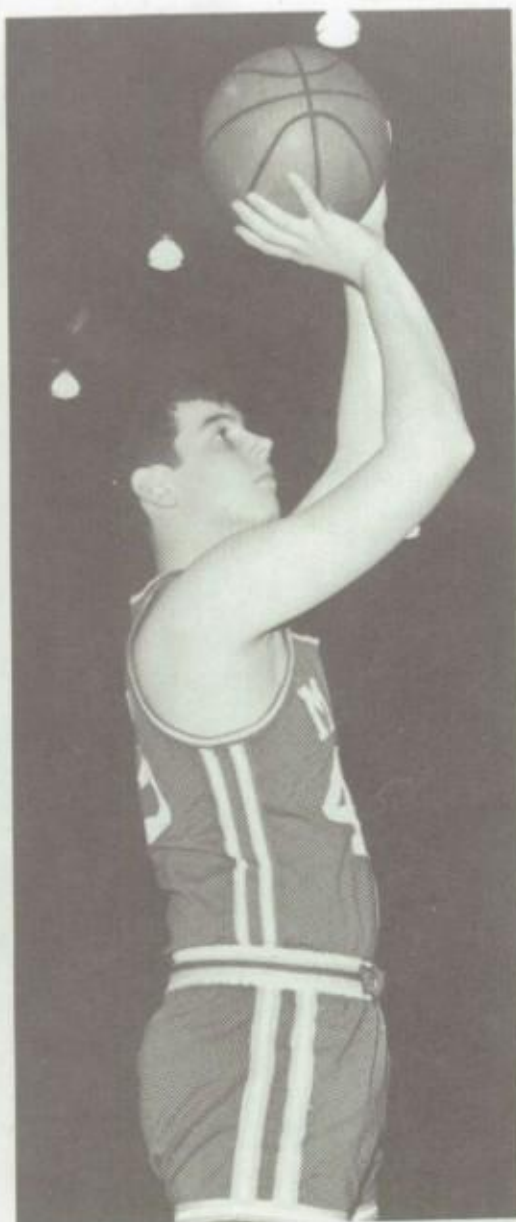

It was indeed an unusual basketball season for the M.H.S. Varsity! But even when the chips were down, the fighting Ironmen did not give up. This team was composed of only two seniors, hence everyone else should be back—so the future looks great for NEXT year.

Terri is captain of the J.V. Cheering Group, Diana Eckart has this position for Varsity.

Cheerleaders worked very diligently throughout the year . . . boosted school spirit at every opportunity . . . backed the teams . . . encouraged good sportsmanship at games. Their tasks were many . . . practice on Wednesday nights . . . attendance at all games . . . always urging "all the way, big team, all the way . . ." Also they had to maintain an overall C average to remain eligible to be cheerleaders.

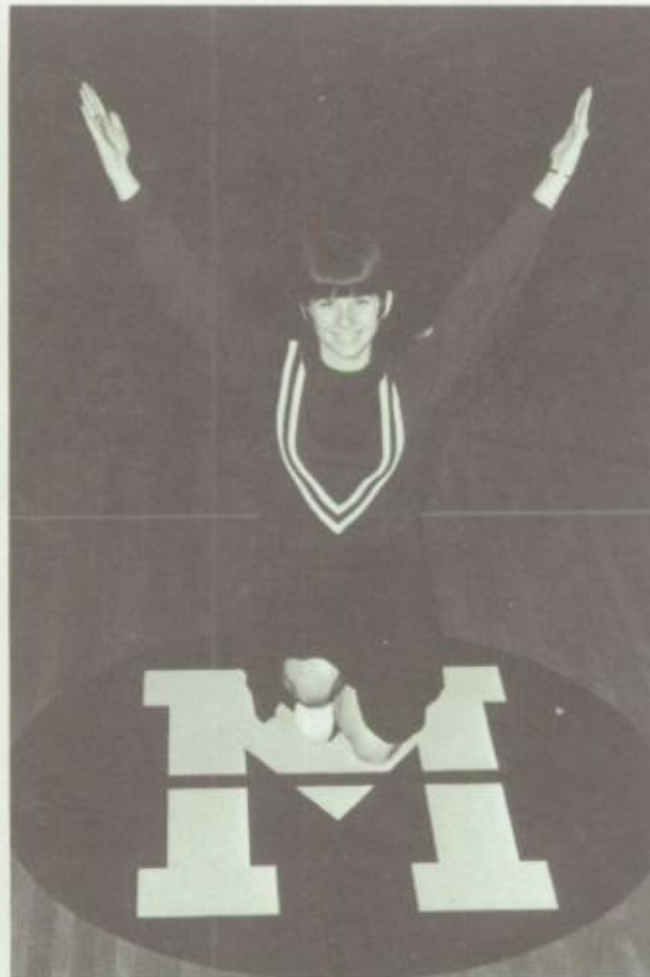

Varsity Cheerleaders attended a one-day camp at Illinois State in October and brought back many new ideas . . . and they were always ready to lend a helping hand to the J.V.'s who are also to be congratulated for a job well done.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-QUARTER

Chosen by National Honor Society

It has become a tradition of Honor Society to recognize special achievements of students by selecting one each quarter from the candidates' names submitted by classes and organizations.

REX STOMBAUGH was so honored for the acclaim he received for his Science Fair project. His electronic elevator model won first place in local and district competitions; then it was judged Outstanding Entry at Illinois Junior Academy of Science. Rex is a member of F.T.A., M.Y.F., Chorus, Math and Science Clubs, and is vice-president of 4-H group.

JILL BAFFORD was named Student-of-Quarter for service as secretary for Senior Class and G.A.A., reporter for F.H.A., and member Student Council; teaches Sunday School, too.

BRENDA MYERS was selected for dedication to F.H.A. work. She is newly-elected secretary and vice-president of projects for Section 13. In 1969 will serve as chapter president. Also a member of Band and G.A.A.

DON BAKER earned honor of being first Student-of-Quarter, cited for outstanding character. He was president of "M" Club and Senior Class, and captain of football team.

CAROLE ANN TOMLINSON achieved the honor of being a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Competition.

STEVE McDONALD earned a portable radio phonograph for being top salesman in Junior Magazines Sale Campaign. Second prize of desk-lamp radio went to REX STOMBAUGH, and RAY MARTIN got a watch as the third prize.

WAYNE SCHMAHL was selected as a guard on All-Conference Football team by the coaches in the Meridian Conference.

JEAN LOTZ was the faculty selection for the D.A.R. Citizenship Award, after senior class had chosen three candidates for this special honor.

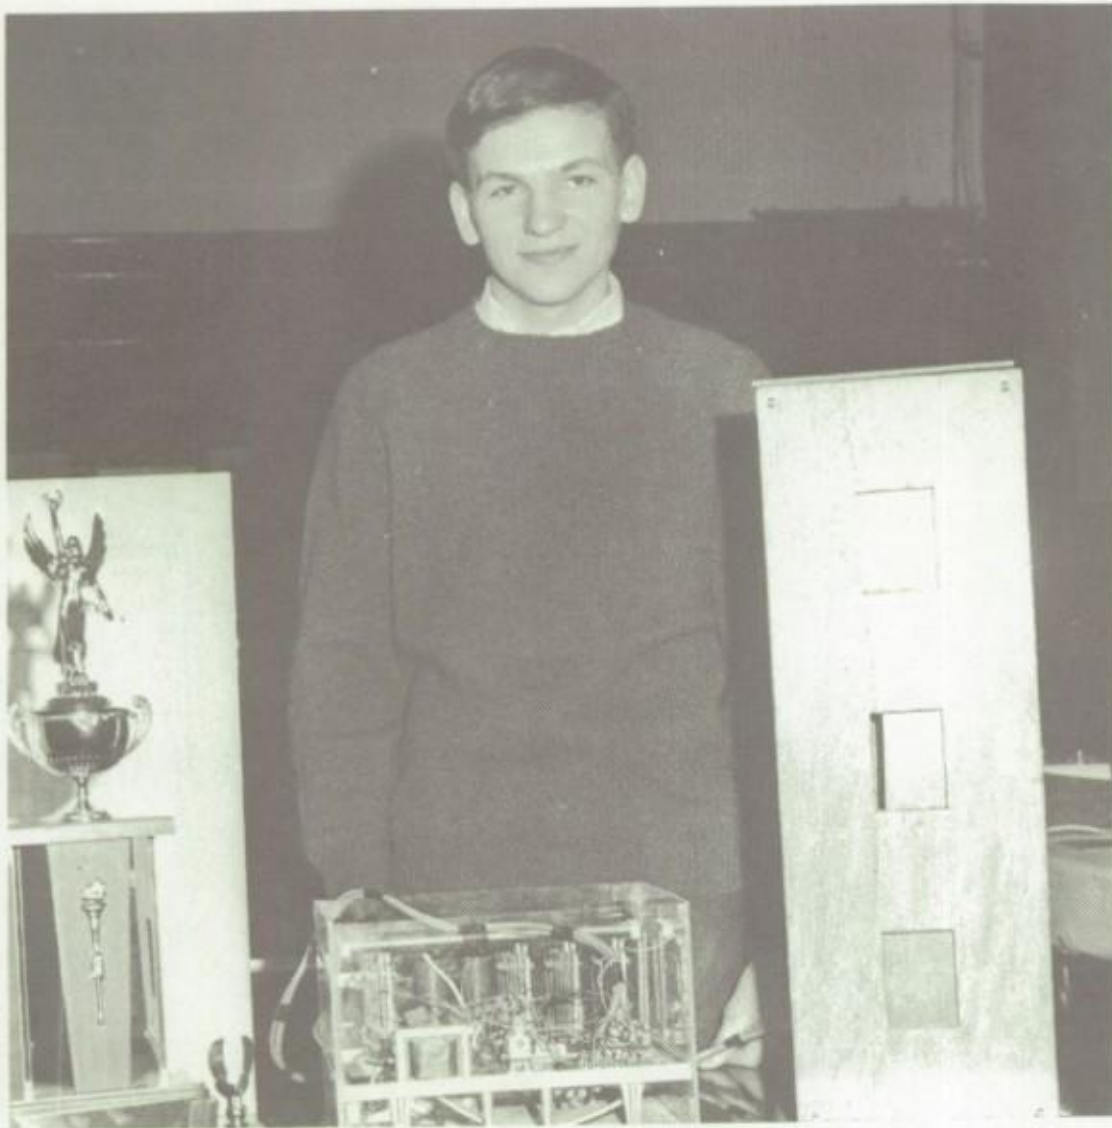

JUDY ALBERT won the 1968 Betty Crocker Homemaking Award for scoring highest grade on a test given to seniors who take Home Ec.

In the "Voice of Democracy" Contest, NANCY K. TOMLINSON was awarded $15 prize and NITA JONES COTTRELL won $5 for their speeches.

Rex's Science Fair Project Won the Grand Prize Trophy

REX'S exhibit was a handsomely executed miniature elevator with intricate wiring. The purpose of this project was to show how these newer type, capacitance-operated elevators work.

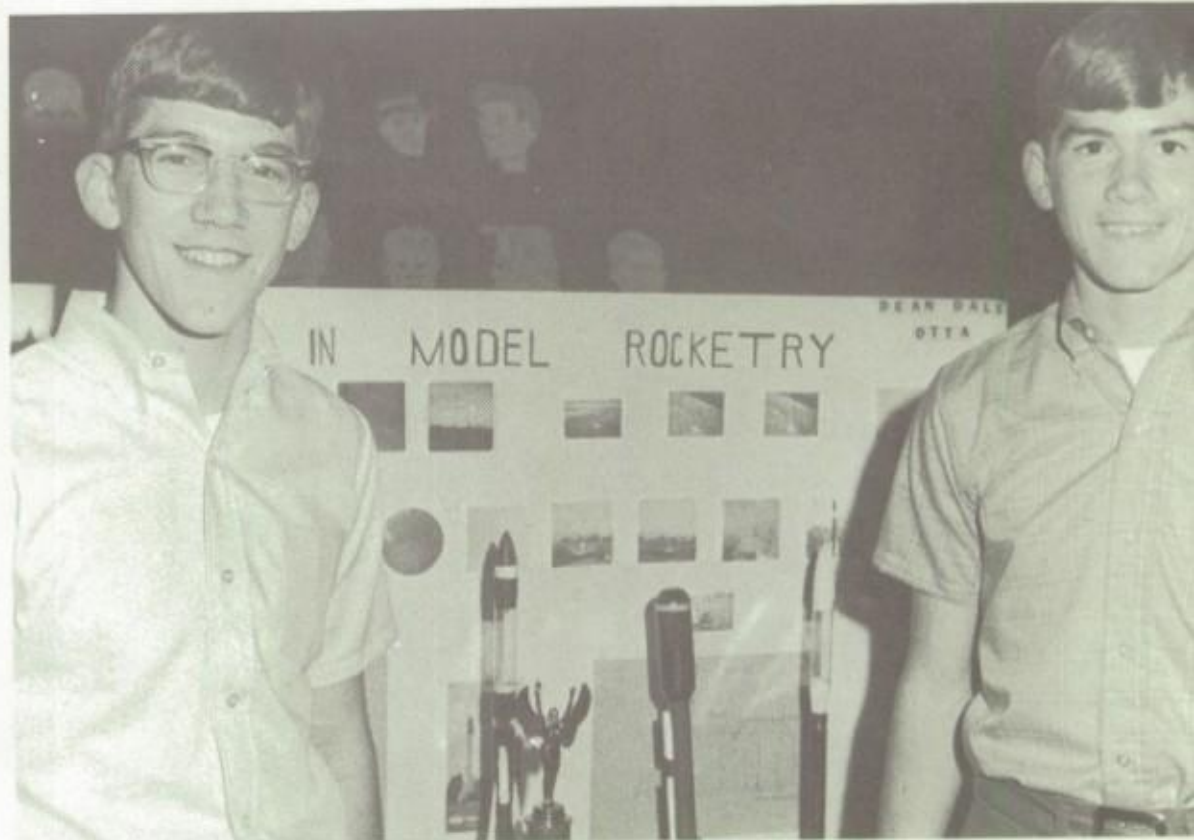

BILL TIETZE won third prize construction of an elliptical pool table. Its purpose was to demonstrate parabolic reflection.

Second prize went to CAROLE ANN for a 6 ft. telescope that she built. This required the grinding and the polishing of a 6 inch mirror; then it had to be silvered.

GARY MATHIAS, 4th prize winner took two months to build his Saturn B-1 Model of an Estes rocket.

The OTTA Twins earned the first place trophy for their study in Model Rocketry. They illustrated such procedures as the selection of the best insects and animals capable of being shot into space.

GLORIA MILLER earned a Superior for her French horn solo.

Is a real nice Junior who knows what he's ^{haha} talking about (usually) and that's got a great big mean dog!!! Good luck always. Signing off

a freshman
Karen O.

To be Cool guy
no matter what were doing or where we were at. Good luck to the girls and future years school
You old buddies,
Don. No. 1

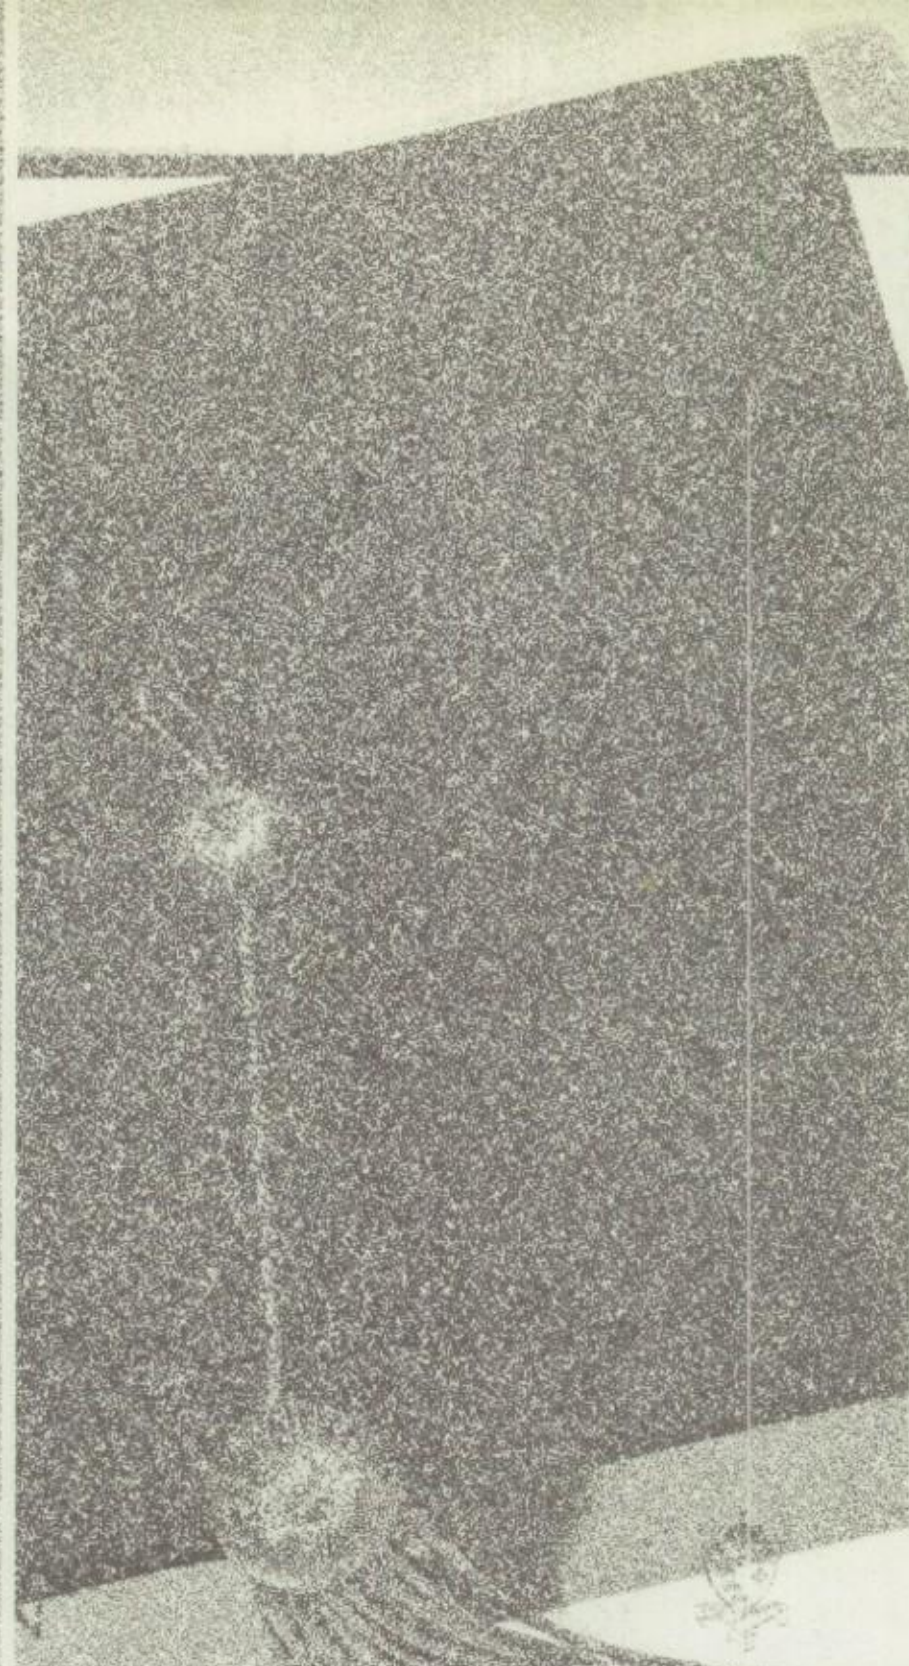

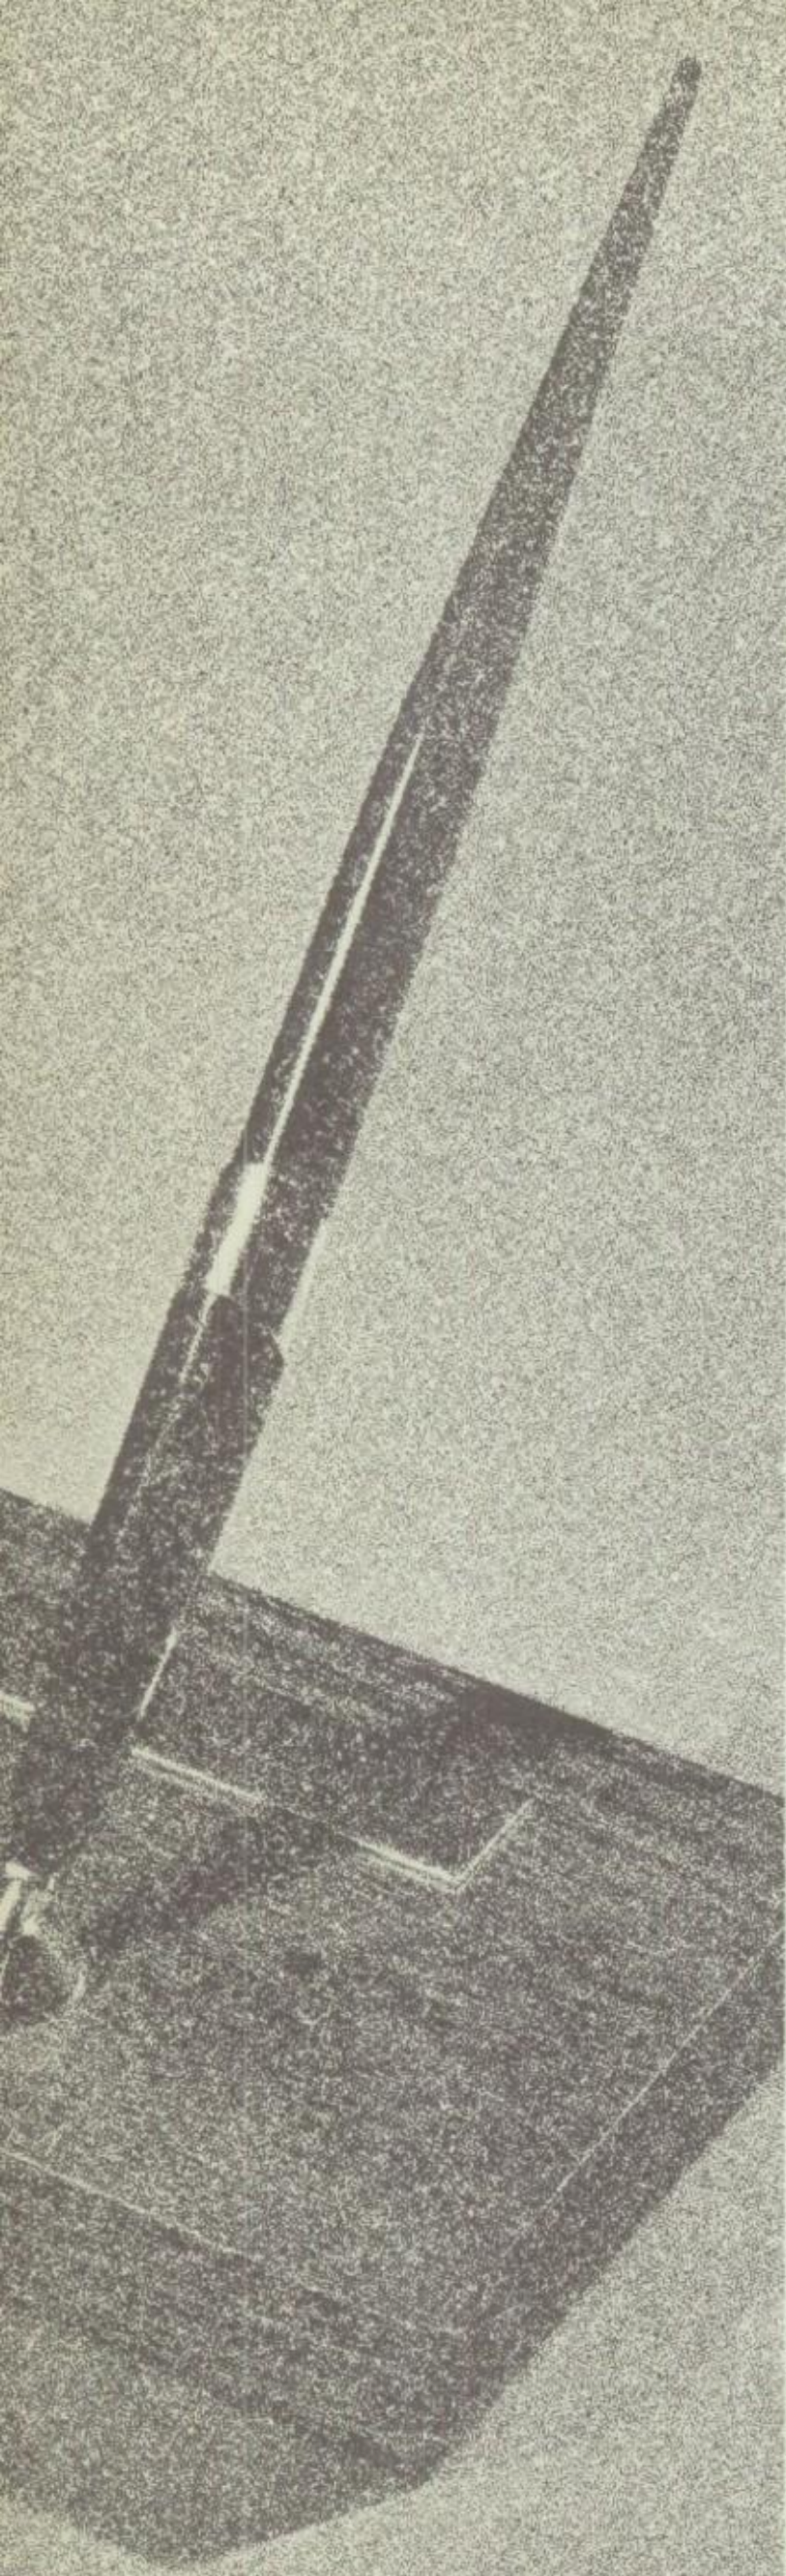

Lee,

To a great guy, fine friend, fairly good runner, and terrible Spanish speaker. Good luck in school, cross country, track, Spanish, and whatever else you may attempt.

Your friend, co-worker, fellow cross-country and track star, and
speaker of Spanish,

James
Thomas
Piller, II

...one of the greatest guys in the whole of Macon high even if you are only a junior
In this cold, cruel, puzzling world
it's nice to run into a level-headed guy.
Hope your goal enough to not knock all the girls over at once. You may lose some friends. You Good Luck. Your
fella track star
